

City of Bloomington
Police Department

Dear Parent / Guardian,

We hope that your child will enjoy the 2015 Bloomington Police Department Law Enforcement Teen Academy. This program is designed to introduce teens age 13 - 17 to law enforcement in general and specifically the Bloomington Police Department. The course will be held Monday July 27th - Friday July 31st. Each day will run from 8am - 4pm at the Public Safety Training Center located at 3230 S. Walnut Street. The academy will be based on lectures, demonstrations and interactive events designed to entertain, engage, and instruct teenagers.

The course will be taught by a number of officers ranging in age and experience from senior officers with over 25 years experience to brand new officers who have just completed training. The course will be limited to 48 students. The cost for the Teen Academy is 25 dollars (scholarships are available). You may pick up your registration and information packet at the Bloomington Police Department, 220 E. Third Street. Registration forms must be returned to the Bloomington Police Department no later than Friday July 3rd, 2015.

If you have any questions regarding the academy please feel free to contact Lt. Steven Kellams at the Bloomington Police Department (812) 339-4477 or by email at kellamss@bloomington.in.gov

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you at the Teen Academy.
